FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lyrical Martial Art Music: Crane Style Band Announces the New EP Release Crane Style by Kelly Sanchez

[CHARLESTON, SC]- Kelly Sanchez, musician, singer-songwriter, and founder of Crane Style Band, has just produced the highly anticipated self titled EP release of “Crane Style”. With its smooth and funky vibe, the EP pays homage to the multi-faceted rhythms of music and fluidity of harmonic energy. The EP release party will be held Sunday, June 23, 2019 from 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm at The Purple Buffalo in Charleston, SC.

With her martial art influences, the evolution of Crane Style and its vision has morphed into an eclectic collection of band members creating unique and memorable experiences. Tailoring the vibe and energy to the needs of each venue and audience, Crane Style band can be seen with three to as many as seven band members on stage at one time.

Band members include: Kelly Sanchez (Vocalist, Guitarist, Keyboard), David Sink (Guitar), Amire Solomon (Base guitar), Demario Kitt (Drum set), Karl Anderson (Congas, Shakers, Cowbell), Laurin McGee (Saxophone), Jamal Hall (Saxophone), Chris Shecut (Saxophone), and Mike Miller (Guitar)

The EP features some of the Charleston’s most talented musicians, and combined with renowned artist and producer, “the maestro” Gino Castillo, this release debut will enhance the vibe on anyone’s playlist!

The event is FREE with registration or $5 at the door. You may register here:
